Copyrighted, 1904, by J. S. Ogivie Publishing Company.

STNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS, seign of the Inquisition in spail. As the sorceres, gathering here is in the made brief the body of Kalem, an unconverted Moor, who was not to death for loving a Christian malden. Morays reads Enrique's pain, tells him he to be overed by the charts and the body of the manufaction in the release her disease for this night?

"Now will end with his life, and confluses by the charts to the manufaction in the release her disease for this night? which will end with his life, and confluses by facting him he show here. The months at her feet. His absence for two days and two nights causes her disease for this night? "I can try, with good hope of successive watching both of them and that come for two days and two nights causes her disease for this night? "Juana I for hid you to commit this sirk the slightest act which might reveal your affliction. I forbid it. Do understand?" "Yes vest" assented Juana, feebly. "Way Allah reward you!" exclaimed followed the more seen and on the sirl's head, blew to be cured of a mysterious lianes.

CHAPTER V.

(Continued.)

Zoraya Places Donna I wan of the man of her mistress to sink gently upon the will him sive more and hour mericane of my poor man to the and nour mericane of the mistress to sink gently upon the will shall be least remembrance of my will sale poor my whict she murmured, tender my your command on the day and hour mericaned she would suddenly fall asleep."

"Not you get the body of water her."

"On such a day, at such an hour, you will is so powerful, ean you understand. The will she would be merely a slaw to mine. It is time to the would never the control of the would be merely a slaw to mine. It is time to the would never the control of the disease for this night?

"I can try, with good hope of success."

"On do it. Zoraya, do it—and I shall be you affliction. I forbid it. Do understand?"

"Way Allah reward you!" exclaimed the way duly colemnized that day in the province of the cast

Juana Under a Spell-Don Enrique's Wedding Bells.

"And also that of the Koran. In that respect our religions are aike. Be seated, my child." Zoraya caused the girl to sit upon the cushions and she took a seat at her side. Then she said:
"Now, tell me what ails you."

Juans looked at Fatoum in a pleading manner, as she timidly replied:
"Batoum can tell you better than I."
"The summer of the governor's daughter to Don"

"Yes, it is very strange," said Fatoum can tell you better than I."
"Yes, it is very strange," said Fatoum. "At night, when fast asleep, the people who are there, walks about and attends to her usual occupations, then returns to her bed without waking."
"I am to be married to-day," said of the gradually lost consciousness."

"Yes, it is very strange," said Fatoum can tell you better than I."
"Of the governor's daughter to Don Enrique hall, followed by her maids.

"To Be Continued.)

To-morrow, the rest of this passionate episode and the passionate episode and the awful tragedy that places the lovers in jeop
"And if my husband were to the said supported her."
"The she gradually lost consciousness"

"Yes, it is very strange," said Fatoum can tell you better than I."
"Of the governor's daughter to Don Enrique hall, followed by her maids.

She crossed the patio between the two lines of guests, all of whom greeted her with a respectful obeisance, cast flowers at her feet and softly murmured their good wishes.

Shortly thereafter Don Enrique, accompanied by Lopes de Padilla and other sentlemen, entered the patio from the banquet hall.

Then she gradually lost consciousness."

"And if my husband were to voice, "and if my husband were to see me arise in the night and walk about like a ghost he would think it was a punishment sent from Heaven as a penalty for my sins. He would look upon me with horror, and I am mure I should die from shame." Zoraya leaned over the girl and genpassed her hand over Juana's head tly passed her hand over Juana's head as if to stroke her hair.

"And in the daytime, when you pray fervently, you fall unconsolously into a sort of delirium or trance, do you not, in which you fancy you are no longer on earth?"

Juana was gradually yielding to the hypnotic suggestion exercised over her by Zoraya; and when she replied to Zoraya's question her utterance was slow and intermittent.

"Oh, yes—yes. It is so beautiful—Ah! It is beautiful! I see the sky!—biue—quite biue, in a glow of golden light—I hear the seruphims and archangels ing."

"And this delicious sleep comes over you quite gently," suggested Zoraya.
"Yes so gently!"
"Like this!" said Zoraya, as she sleed Justa's cyclids.
"Yes Tisee Tise

"Is she askep! asked remained as when she walks in the night."
"Juana! ... Senorita! ... My child! ... called ratoum, in a loud voice, but the girl did not stir.
"The cannot hear your voice," said Zoraya. "It is useless for you to speak to her. Tell me, Fatoum, when she is awake, does she speak of taking the seal!"

"Yes: it is her only thought, but her father will not consent to it. She is his only child, yet he is forcing her into a marriage which she detests."

"Is her repugnance for the marriage or the h. hand?" asked Zoraya. "Ah! I can ask her-she will tell me. . Juana! Juana! Answer me! Have you any affection for the man you are about to marry?"

any affection for the man you are about to marry?"

"I do not love him," she replied, about and mechanically.
"Do you detest him?"

"No, but I do not wish to marry. I wish to enter the religious life."

"You hear!" exclaimed Fatoum, "With me, with her father, with the abbess and the Sisters of Mercy, it is always the same—she wishes to enter the religious life."
"I have an idea," said Zoraya, "this marriage may prove the best remedy for her disease."
"Oh, I beseech you, Zoraya, cure her yourself—cure her now!"
"In one day! That is impossible!

who senors. You sell to price upon my cure, service deserves a reward.

it: I promise it in advance.

It: I promi

around astonished. Then she said to Zoraya, saily:

"Ah! vou see! I still fall asleep!"

"No. senorita, no! It was I who put you to sleep."

"Have you that power?"

"Yes: also the power to cure you. Be assured your trouble will not visit you to-night."

"Oh, thank you, senora. You have given me much joy."

"But I take a price upon my cure, such a service desayres a reward."

"Name it: I promise it in advance."

"You are going to the Convent of Mercy?" said Zoraya.

"You are going to the Convent of Mercy?" said Zoraya.

"Well, there is in that convent a young Christian girl who, for her love of Kalem, is now imprisoned in a cell in which she never sees the light of day; in which she awaits death as a deliverance, if she has not aiready answered its summons."

"You are going to the Convent of the she was silent, gloomy, preoccupied and replied rather testily to the raillery of his friends.

None knew the conflicting thoughts which charged his mind; none knew of his inward struggle between love and duy—his duty toward his bride and his love for the Mcorish woman who lived in the pretty cottage on the threat of revenge. Zoraya then entered the bridal chamber of her successful rival. Immediately after Zoraya's entrance d Aisha allowed the inanimate form the mistress to sink gently upon the ashions, whilst she murmured, tender-independent of the esteem and affection which I once the esteem and affection which I once the mistress to sink gently upon the the esteem and affection which I once the mistress to sink gently upon the the esteem and affection which I once the mistress to sink gently upon the esteem and affection which I confide to wou my most preclous possession, astender and loving of husbands."

"And to you my lord, I trust I shall be the most dutiful of sons."

Don Enrique crossed the courtyard to reach the stairs which led to Juana's abartment; not with the light and easer say of the expectant lover, but with the slow, firm tread of a man who is a slave of destiny, and whose pathway in life has been hewn out for him by others who did not solicit or consider his wishes in the matter.

(T) Be Continued.)

CHAPTER VII.

tation - An Astonish-Door.

HEN Don Enrique reached the half of a cake of compressed yeast, dis-leaving the bridal chambers after the it into the sponge, adding at the same ompletion of her duties.

Why did you not go away with the turn on a board and knead lightly for one beaten egg and stir over the fire others? • • • Do you hear me? • • • fifteen minutes. Who are you?" "I am sorrow, and you are treachery,"

"Zoraya!" exclaimed Enrique, recoiling from her in his surprise.

She left the steps and followed him few paces into the patio, then said to Place close together in a greased pan, him, in cutting tones: "You forgot to invite "You! Here . . . with her!" said Enrique, looking cautiously around to pan is covered with a thick cloth as see if they were in danger of being observed.

"With your wife? Yes."

"To tell her, I suppose, that"—
"Ah, wretch!" she cried. "You think only of her. You are less moved by my despeir than by the fear that she may know you as the lover of a Saracen."

"When I saw you on the steps of the church to-day it was not to that innocent child but to the entire city that I plied Fatoum.

"And he—where is Don Enrique?"

"Oh, at the banquet in the great hall.
But come in, whilst to one is about to see us."

Fatoum led the way into Juana's
Fatoum led the way into Juana's

Tooms, but Zoraya lingered a moment to
Is it possible?" Overcome by her emotion, Zoraya fell to the floor of the flower Jake her clenched acked columns. was almost tempted to cry out, "That

A Hot Supper & & & For a Cold Night Plain Directions for Its Preparation.

clate more than ever the comforts of a warm, wel!-lighted house and a cheery table, writes Cornella C. Bedford in the Buffelo Express. On such a night try a supper like this and note how well it

Beef Cannelon. Brown Tomato Sauce. Creamed Potatoes. Hot Yeast Biscuits. Chinese Radishes. Hot Slaw. Stewed Fruit. Cake. Tea or Coffee.

In attending to the details of this supper the yeast rolls must receive first hered to the bottom. attention, as they need time for rising and kneading. Pare, wash and boil four leated for creaming. The Bridegroom's Temp- put them through the press or mash slowly one cupful of the water in which they were boiled, one cupful of scalard milk and one cupful of sifted flour. Let stand until blood warm, then add one foot of the stairway which led solved in one-quarter of a cupful of to Juana's apartments he was warm water and as much more flour as osed she was one of the serving-maids a cupful of butter until quite soft, beat time two well-beaten eggs. Stir in What are you doing here, woman? enough flour to make a very soft dough,

Return to the bowl, cover and again set aside until very light. Knead again. replied the woman, as she raised her this time very thoroughly, and set away in a cool place where the dough will rise more slowly. When doubed in size turn out, roll a scant inch thick and cut into tiny oval or round biscuits. rubbing the sides with melted butter, that they may be easily separated when baked. Brush the tops with milk and when light bake in a hot oven. If the soon as taken from the oven and left undisturbed for five or ten minutes the crust will be very delicate and tender. The cannelon and its sauce may also receive attention early in the day. Two six persons, and shoulder, under round or any of the tougher and cheaper outs

WHEN autumn days are bleak and | butter or sust. Mold it into a wellraw, and sharp winds give warn-ing of wintry storms, we appre-and on the top spread three or four very thin alices of fat salt pork or bacen. From thirty-five to forty minutes will be needed in a sharp oven.

Stew slowly together for half an hour one-half of a can of tomatoes, a sprig of parsley, a slice of onion, a clove, half a teaspoonful of salt and a dash of paprika or pepper. Set off for five minutes, then add a paste made by rubbing together one teaspoonful of butter and one of flour. When this has dissolved return to the fire and stir until the tomatoes are thickened. Rub this through a sleve and set aside until night; then reheat to boiling, and when the meat is taken from the oven pour it into the pan, set over the fire and stir vigorously for a moment or two to loosen and incorporate the browning which has a !-

The smallest potatoes should be se

With these aubstantials pickles or se sharp or acrid preparation will go well oroughly with a fork. Sprinkle over Chinese or winter radishes are now ing Scene at the Bride's a tablespoonful of sugar, then stir in skinned varieties. For serving they are market in both the white and black pared and either sliced or cut into strips. In place of a cold salad hot slaw to sur gested. Take part of a small firm head of white cabbage and shave it as finely as possible. Boil together for five minutes one cupful of vinegar, six cloves, a bay to Juana's apartments he was greatly surprised to disover a veiled woman standing upon the steps.

He knew not who she was, but sup
He knew not who she was, but suppints. Cover closely and steam for fif

In the meantime, heat one cupful of until it begins to thicken, then take off, pour over the cabbage and turn into a covered dish. This is an old Dutch dish and is quite as good cold as hot. If it is desired to be used cold as a salad it may be mixed with an equal quantity of finely cut celery and garnished with ceiery tips and pickled beets cut into

At this time of the year apples ought to be plentiful and cheap. They are so popular, so healthful and can be pre pared in many ways.

While any kind of cake may be served with this meal the following small cakes are easy to make, keep well and are always liked. Cream together one cup-ful of butter and two cupfuls of brown sugar. Add one-quarter of a square of chocolate grated and melted over hot water, one teaspoonful of ground cinnamon, one-quarter of a teaspoonful each of cloves and mace and one-half of and tough fat and put the meat through the chopper. With the hands work thoroughly into it one-half of a cupful of fine dry bread crumbs, one scant tegspoonful of salt, one-third of a teaspoonful of salt, one-third of a teaspoonful of milk, four cupfuls of a cupful of milk, four cupfuls of the eggs. Last of all sitr in two teaspoonful of each cupful of sold dissolved in a teaspoonful of warm water and two cupfuls of mixed sultanas and currants. Bake in muffin tins.

AMUSEMENTS.

DALY'S Broadway a Noth st. | Mailnee Evenings at 8,10. | Sat at 2 |
Edna May The School Girl.

KNICKERBOCKERTHEATHE, B way & 28th st. E. H. JULIA Mot. Sat. AND JULIA AND JULIET.

Garrick THEATRE, Seth St., Dear B Way

Ev. & 15, Mat. Set.

Henry Miller | Entangled."

Herald Sq. THEATRE, Seth St. As B Way.

Lev gra 15, Mats Wed. & Sat.

Dockstader's Minstrels. CRITERION THEATRE, 46th st. & Bway.
WM. H. CRANE BUSINESS IS BUSIN SAVOY THEATRE. 34th st., near B'way.
MRS. WIGGS OF CABBAGE PATCH Lycenm B way & 45th. At 8.15. Mat. Sat. CECILIA LOFTUS in "The Serio-Comic Governess."

14TH ST. THEATRE MAL WG-Sat PRICES—Rev'd 25c, to $1.50, Good Seats 50c, LAST 2 WEEKS, THE SEASON'S REAL SUCCESS. SYDNEY AYRES the best comedy-drama in town.

LIAMMERSTEIN'S VICTORIA, 42 st. HARLEM The Secret of Polichinelle

Hurtig & Seamon's WEST

Mat Fanny Rice, Annie Abbott, Helen

Daily Gerard, Kingsley & Lewis, Others.

THE MAGIC KETTI.E.

"She," or the Four Elementa.
Frank Keenan & Co., 5 Mowatts.
Cole & Johnson, Jas. J. Morton. GRAND WILLIAM COLLIER

BROOKLYN AMUSEMENTS.

KEENEY'S To-day 10, 13, 23, To-nigh Haines & Vidoca, Kritssel's Dog & Monkey Circus, Rapoll and other big acts, Next Wesk-DELLA FOX. SUNDAY CONCERTS, 3 and 8.15 P. M.

WILLIAM GILLETTE

Addition of new 13th Street Pulidings will give us 68,000 square feet more space—all for Dry Goods.

Great Fall Sale

What so powerful as Low Price when coupled with Good and Seasonable Merchandise?

Our Fall business, largely exceeding any of corresponding past seasons, demonstrates that the best attractions are GOOD VALUES That attention we pay to development of our business on a strictly Dry Goods basis is appreciated, is proven by growth that demands addition of new buildings now rapidly approaching completion—(8,000 square feet more space—all for Dry Goods.

MATCHLESS FALL SALE OFFERINGS that will be on sale to-morrow:-

59 ct. Crepe de Chines...39 24 inch-light, medium and dark colors for day and evening—nothing more in demand than these silky, crepy fabrics for dressy wear!

50 ct. Egyptian Crepes...29 Sinch all wool Crepe Egyptian-light Blue, Pink, Old Rose, Gray, Castor, Tan, Mode, Cardinal, Garnet, Royal and Navy Blue, Reseda, Brown, Myr-tle Cream and Black—one of the best Dress Goods values yet offered!

19 ct. Cotton Stripe Coverts. 10 Yard wide extra fine weave very ser-viceable for dresses and skirts.

15 ct. White Dress Lawns 8% Fine, sheer quality-for children's fresses and undergarmets-buy for future needs; this is not an everyday

60 ct. Silk Emb'd Flannels:34 White Baby Fiannels, elaborately emb'd in hemstitch and cut out scallop designs—all the newest patterns—one of the best wash flannels manufac-

Notions-Cut Prices! Black Sewing Silks-fine quality-Mohair Skirt Bruids-black only-6 yd. pcs-value 8c.... Cotton Elastic-black and white-3 best widths-value so to 7c yd... Best American Pins-3 sizes-usually 5 cents a paper......

$4,00 Tapestry Panels., 1,49 Imported Tapestry Panels in hand Verdure designs—borders all rot yards long—50 inches wide—mais fective wall decorations—

25 ct. White Table Damask .. 1? Extra fine mercerized finish-five pret-ty patterns-54 inch. $7.00 Blankets...3.95

72x54 White California Wool-beauti to look at and full of comfort in us silk ribbon bound-pretty pink or bi borders. High-class Blankets at pr of the ordinary. $6.00 Down Comfortables. 3.24

Best French Sateen-figured both sides-fancy stitched-cord edge. 6% ct. Muslins.. 3%

Unbleached—Heavy round thread—full 36 inches wide—(not 30-inch as elsewhere offered)—These being Mill Lengths (15 to 30 yards), you will find them even a better grade than usual!

Limit 20 yards—No Mail Orders.

Women's $12.00 Cloaks ... 7.98 Black Cheviot and Tan Covert-popular loose effect-with belt-full saturalined-have all the syle of a Twenty dollar garment-all sizes!

Women's $16.98 Sutts.. 9.98 Tallor-made medium and heavy man-nish Cloths, and Navy. Brown and Black Cheviots—Blouses or fitted of loose Belted Coxts—a number of styles, but only a few of a kind.

$2.25 Wool Waists. 1.49 Women's Cashmore and Albatros Waists—best colors: also Blick so White—tailored pleats; or emb d from piece—full lined—ail sizes.

59 ct. Night Dresses...37 Women's-Heavy Muslin-yoke of pin tucks in clusters-H. S. ruffle nock and sleeves or hemsilten tucke yoke and wide insertings of H. S. emb'y.

$1.98 Coutil Corsets.. ,95 A well-known make-straight for medium hip-lace and ribbon trie and bettom-garter attachment

Babies' 17 ct. Items .. . 1234 Cashmere Shirts sizes to 3 yrs.; Daisy Fiannel Sneques all sizes, Knitted Mittens... Instead of 17 cents—12% cents.

Boys' 35 ct. Underwear. . . 23 Heavy Wool Fleeced Shirts and Draw ers-double stitched seams-pearl but tons-34 to 34 inch-usually .25 to .35.

39 ct. Lace Stocks .. . 19 New Point Gaze Stocks, in Re Floral designs single tab-w champagne and ecru-one of the tiest styles. 24 ct. Rich Taffeta Ribbons, .17

25 ct. Piece Val. Laces ...

Val Lace Insertings and Edgings An Importer's Sample lot at leas the Importer's cost—This price is for dozen yards.

These Laces are used exten-sively on Evening Halz. 12 ct. Writing Paper .. .8

29 ct. Peppers and Salts.. .17

27x5i-Oriental patterns-

FINE WILTON RUGS

Best of Values in Rugs

Quotations that follow represent extra money's worth...Qualities Styles Assortments, Prices are most attractive......Go where you may compare your judgment will pronounce these incomparable values ALL-WOOL ART SQUARES PERSIAN TAPESTRY RUGS

Two-toned colorings—all reversible.

$x2 yds.....3.985x3½ yds.....7.20

$x2½ yds.....4.983x4 yds.....8.49

$x3 yds.....6.253x5 yds.....10:98 32.03 Oriental designs hand-knot fringe-five-dollar Rugs at: 2.98 INGRAIN ART SQUARES VELVET AXMINSTER RUGS ALL-WOOL SMURNA RUGS

26x54 inch.....1.59 7.6x10.6 ft. ...13.98 20x60 inch.... 1.97 2x12 ft.17.98 AXMINSTER RUGS High art color Combinations. WILTON HALL RUNNERS

BRUSSELS RUGS Large assortment of scroll, modaltion and small figures—in colors to harmonize with all furnishings.

6x 9 feet—value $1.00 6.95
9x 9 feet—value $1.00 9.96
9x12 feet—value $16.60 12.96 COMBINATION FUR RUGS

Unlined Goat Skins-26x72 inch-value $2.98..... Combination Goat Skins-Bast-lined and interlined—value 5.00. 3.79

Persian designs in rich colors. COCOA MATS

2.3r9 ft.......7.49 | 2.5x10.8 ft......8.49 All sizes—plain and bordered 49 to 8.40

Women's DAILY FREE DELIVERIES Heavy Cotton Waists Winter house wear and travelling.

One Hundred Miles. By Freight on paid purchases tail RR. Stations in New York, New England, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Women's Taffeta Silk Waists

Mill Lengths of Plannelettes

MORNING SALES To-Morrow, Tuesday until 1 P. M.

Full Size Sheets 24x24 vds.—Good heavy Bleached Muslin— BASEMENT.

Great Black Silk Value "Guaranteed" Peau de Soles-soft, lustrous silks that are more than ever in demand for dresses, waists and cloaks-shirr and tuck beautifully-"Guarantee" woven in edge-65-cent quality

MAIN FLOOR.

Heavy twill-fleece back-excellent styles for dresses, kis and wrappers—medium and durk—Instead of 12's cents— To-morrow Morning....... BASEMENT. Table Oil Cloths .39 14 ydz. wide-best quality-nest patterns-in blue, binek

ONLY SOLD UNTIL ONE R M-NO MAIL ORDERS.

HERE are the Sunday papers, because the dear child is so thoughtful him a thief; did you say he was a low you ask? Now, I suppose you and so you commence at me about wretch and a forger?

are going to make a fuss them! You never get to see them, you say?

because dinner is late? and trouble of keeping a house, they you don't think he is honest, you say? The Young Man—De would not rush into matrimony. If had only known how I would be abused committing suicide, say he belongs to other six months for? and how the life would be tormented the Black Hand! Remember he is my abode of happiness! you didn't try to stare a quarrel about to: the Sunday papers! If it isn't one thin It is another!

and pleasant, and you come and ask me that drove him to it; but he wasn't a where the Sunday papers are! burglar, Mr. Nagg: he wasn't "You saw brother Willie with them, he was never hung in his life!

you say? Well, is the poor boy to be "Why don't you act at home like you treated as a criminal, is he to be do abroad? You are nice to everybody "Oh. I besseen you, Zoraya, cure her yourself—cure her now!"
"In one day! That is impossible! taken out and executed as a spy simuld, have been successful, by frequently placing her in the condition in which you now see her. In which she thinks, feels and acts only through "Never mind, you say, it isn't worth you! Be a hypoorite; have one set of thinks, feels and acts only through me."

"Is it possible? It is witchcraft:"

while fussing about? Oh, I never fuss, will be a hypocrite; have one set of manners for your home and another for the world. But I shall go ellent to my grave, a victim to your 'yrandetermined will is exercised over that of a weaker creature, such as this young siri. It is such, Fatoum, that, whether for good or evil, if my dominion over this delicate child were of longer duration and better established.

"Never mind, you say, it isn't worth world. But I shall go ellent to manners for your home and another for the world. But I shall go ellent to my grave, a victim to your 'yranda your temper and never tear the mask from you!

"I saw you talking to the President brother Willie took the Sunday papers of your bank yesterday when you were out to give them to some poor family, negotiating a large loan. Did you call hem from the newsman, wast on my money to give to the poor. He does she isn't one of the demonstrative knees until you are awake and then give money to the poor, he tells me so kind!

that I have to be economical, that I

"Oh, it is no use to say you are sorry!

"Oh, it is no use to say you are sorry!

"I won't be quiet! I won't be calm am quiet too much! I am calm too often, and this is the way I am repaid!

"You are going out if I don't be quiet?

"You are going out if I don't be quiet?

"You are going out if I don't be quiet?

"You are going out if I don't be quiet?

"You are going out if I don't be quiet? my feelings, you sneer at me, you Go out if you want to! You only start of it! You are quick enough to object impose on me! I am too quiet; I give "This is the girl's day out, and I am if I venture to tell you how to run your in to him too much." not going to kill myself for you! own business. Why don't you put "Oh, if young girls only knew the care Brother Willie to work again? Because "Call him a murderer, accuse him of you want to put our wedding off anout of me trying to make my home an brother, and, of course, he must be an two younger sisters the other day tell-

"Why don't you say my mother is a of the way.-Chicago Tribune. pirate? Why don't you say my poor "I give it up, there is no use trying papa was a burgiar? My poor papa I do everything I can, I am always kind may have drank, but it was trouble burglar, Mr. Nagg: he wasn't a forger;

"No, Mr. Nagg, you did not; and yet about the Sunday papers, Mr. Nagg! "Mother was here to-day and got me look what you have said about my so upset, brother Willie fatrly drives me poor dear papa and my sweet, affec-"Well, what do you want me to do? mad with his singing and whistling and tionnte mamma, who is so fond of you, shall I got up at daybreak and grab his untidiness and always asking me for although she doesn't show it, because present them to you on a silver salver?

"Never mind, you say? But I do mind! Isn't it enough that I have to look after everything in this house, about the Sunday papers!

"You didn't say anything about my paper when the say anything about my paper and my mamma, you say? Aht.

The Land of Heartsease, and rave but what is in your thoughts? Answer me! What is in your thoughts? Answer

"Perhaps you are going to ask me why this room isn't swept. Maybe you will find fault because the beds are not made? Perhaps you will raise the roof self? Goodness knows I would be glad for permitting him to bully me and to WERNER, and others."

The feelings, you sheef at me, you are going to ask me quarrel with me, you find fault with the way the house is run!

Go out if you want to! You only start ed this quarrel as an excuse so you could flounce out of the house!

"There he goes! This is what I get haves, Jos. R. Donovan, Green & werner, and others." made? Perhaps you will raise the roof self? Goodness knows I would be glad for permitting him to bully me and to

The Young Man-Dearest, what do

The Girl-Because I overheard my outcast! Oh, this is what I have to put ing each other how much more of pa's "The Sunday papers! Oh, don't say up with, this is what I have to listen money they were going to have to spend on themselves after I was out

> The Williams Company Perfectly Tailored 19 Gore Blue & Green Check Runabout Skirts

Size. $73/4 FREE. 330 SIXTH AVENUE, is it possible? Overcome by her emotion, Zoraya fell to the floor of the patio, at the foot of one of the flower-decked columna.

"My Zoraya! my fault, my only fault, was in not telling you the first day"—

"That you loved this gir!?"

"No, no! Not that—that I was compelled to"—

"To betray me for her," said Zoraya coldiy.

AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S To-day-To-night. 23 8 A Grand Vaudeville Programme Paul Geo. Marcol Venie. Ath spadonil Wilson Twinslerton & Co "SECRET SERVICE."
with EDWIN ARDEN, Isabel
Evesson and Stock Co.
Also Great Vaudeville Bill. | 25|| S| { "THE CAVALIER." | with Big Stock Co. Favorites. | Excellent Vaudeville Bet. Acta Soll SI. Shedows of a Great City.

NEW YORK, LAST 2 WEEKS.
Barg. Mat. DENMAN THOMPSON.
Wed. 25c. & 50c. THE OLD HOMESTEAD.

WEBER MUSIC HALL B'way & 20th St.
Mais. Thes. & Sat.
OPENS THURSDAY EV'G, OCT. 20.
WEBER & ZIEGFELD STOCK WEBER & ZIEGFELD STOCK COMPANY. MAJESTIC LAST TWO WEEKS ISLE OF SPICE. Best seats Wed. Mat., $1.00. Other per-formances, $1.50.

ACADENY OF MUSIC, 14th st. & Irving pt. CHECKERS THOS. W. ROSS Prices 20, 50, 75, $1. Mats. Wed. & Sat. 2. Ev. 8.15. Manhattan Brwsy & 331 et. By. 8. MRS. FISKE | BECKY SHARP STAR. The Factory Girl. 3D AV. 31st st. and 2d av. Matines To-Day YORKVILLE Ev gs. tnel. Sun., 25-50-75-1.000
Mats. Wed & Sat., 25c & 50
80th st. Lex. av BuST v A CDE VALLE.

METROPOLIS. THE WHITE TIGRESS OF JAPAN. PRINCESSTO ME CHARLES HAWTREY A Monango Lyric Wed. OTIS SKINNER The CASINO No. 820 PIFF, PAFF, FOUF

Wallack's TheKoreanComicOpera, The Ewas, 8.20, Mats, Wed. SHO-GUN By Geo. Add & Sat. 2.15. Garden Madad av Ev. 8.30 Mar Wd. ABC. (1EO. ADE'S College Widow Comedy, THE College Widow

THE COUNTY WORLD BEATERS CO. Burlesque & Vaudeville.

THE DIVI

THE DICTATOR. BROADWAY F. C. Whitney presents MME.
THEATRE 41St. SCHUMANN-HEINK
EV. S. 15. Mat. Sat. In 'LOVE'S LOTTERY.' Keith's Brway KEITH'S SHOWS and Talk of New York Prices 25c. and 50c. MRS. FISKE | BECKY SHARP | BIJOU | JOLLY WIX And His Merry | BELASCO | THEATRE | Brees | 8.15 | MR. | MATS. WED. & SAT. | 2.15 | MRFIELD in the new Comedy Drains | WARFIELD | THE MUSIC MASTER | Well Mai. | The Street | Singer | 25c, & 50c.

SINN'S MONTAUK